Indicate China Will Reject UN Action on Fliers

Peiping Broadcast Does Not Refer to Request for Meeting

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Red China angrily accused the United Nations today of interfering in the Communist regime's affairs by authorizing Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld to try to arrange the release of 11 American airmen jailed there as "spies."

Radio Peiping, official voice of Red China, indicated that the out-cast Communist government would reject any overtures made by Hammarskjöld on behalf of the fliers.

Red China's reaction came after Britain's U. N. Delegate Anthony Nutting said his government stands "four-square" behind United States' and United Nations' efforts to gain release of the airmen.

The Peiping broadcast, quoted from an editorial in the official Peiping Peoples Daily, said the United States goaded the U. N. General Assembly into taking action, which it called "illegal and unjust."

It said the United Nations "has no right to interfere with China's sentencing of American spies."

"The banner of the United Nations cannot cover up the United States crime of airdropping spies in China," Radio Peiping said, "no matter what means are taken, the civilized world knows what the truth is."

The broadcast did not refer to Hammarskjöld's cabled request for a Dec. 26 meeting in Peiping with Red China's Premier Chou En-Lai. Hammarskjöld's message, left New York at 5:08 p. m. last Friday, slightly more than an hour after the General Assembly had requested by a 47-5 vote that he negotiate for the fliers' release. The message was traced to Shanghai at 6 p. m. Friday. From there it was expected to be forwarded to Peiping.

The Red Chinese tirade against the United Nations was expected to bring strong reaction from free world diplomats.

Red China's attitude, in view of her repeated attempts to get into the United Nations, puzzled Western diplomats.

They could not understand why the Peiping regime chose to announce the sentences imposed on the Americans at a time when the Soviet Union was speaking softly of "peaceful coexistence."

These diplomats believed that a rejection by Chou of Hammarskjöld's overtures would end all of China's hopes for membership in the United Nations.

Carrier Mills to Vote Tomorrow on Sanitary District

Carrier Mills voters will decide tomorrow on the question of the formation of the Carrier Mills Sanitary district.

They will go to the polls to vote on the district, which would provide a sanitary sewer system for the city.

The city limits would be the boundaries of the district. The vote tomorrow is solely on the formation of the district, not on the installation of a sewer system. A vote on the sewer system would come later.

Record $90.5 Billion Paid in Taxes For Government, Foundation Reports

NEW YORK (AP)—Americans paid a record $90,551,000,000 in taxes to the government during fiscal 1954, despite cuts in federal taxes, it was announced today.

Stiff increases in state and local taxes sent the total take to a new high, the Tax Foundation explained in its "Facts and figures on government finance."

Looking ahead, the foundation said "the full effect of recent federal tax cuts in fiscal 1955 may reverse the upward trend of total tax receipts for the first time since 1949."

"However," the private research organization added, "the trend of state and local taxes is still sharply higher."

The combined tax take of all government for the latest fiscal year rose from $89,968,000,000 in fiscal year 1953. The 1954 fiscal year ended last June 30.

Even though the total tax burden increased, the foundation said, population gains brought per capita tax receipts down from $578 in fiscal 1953 to $572 in the latest fiscal year.

Since 1946, it noted, state and local tax receipts have more than

Ground Observers Hold Practice Alert, But Ceiling Too Low

The Saline County Ground Observer Corps was alerted yesterday from 12 noon until 6 p. m. but because of weather conditions, which produced a 300-foot ceiling, there either were no planes or none was sighted.

Rees Turner, Harrisburg supervisor, had placed the observers at various stations. The observer posts are in Harrisburg, Eldorado, Galatia, Stonefort, Carrier Mills, and in Independence township.

This practice test alert was ordered by Capt. Richard J. Burns of the U. S. Air Force, commander of the Springfield center of the Ground Observer Corps.

Clear Husband In Murder of Arkansas Woman

BRINKLEY, Ark. (AP)—Police today cleared a prominent auto agency owner of any connection with the "killing stick" killing of his attractive young wife and investigators sent bloodhounds on the trail of a "tall man wearing one shoe."

Mrs. Milton Fuller, 25, mother of two children, was killed in the bedroom of her home. Police believe the time her husband was having an early-morning cup of coffee in town and when he returned home and dozed on a couch in the adjoining living room.

"He has never been a suspect," Police Chief Frank Henderson said. Fuller, who told officers he found his wife dying on the bedroom floor Sunday shortly after he was awakened by a "thudding noise" in the house.

Fuller had returned to the home after an early morning cup of coffee with some duck hunting friends at a downtown cafe.

Henderson said Mrs. Fuller probably awoke and confronted the prowler just before he crushed her skull with one smashing blow on the head with a four-foot-long stick of kindling wood.

"We think he was barefooted as we found several bare footprints in the yard and what looked like one in the kitchen," Henderson said. "Prowlers usually take off their shoes when they enter a house so as not to wake anyone."

A newspaper boy told police he saw a large man in a dark overcoat leaving the Fuller home about 5:30 a. m. The boy said he saw the man again later walking down the railroad tracks leading out of town and that he had "one bare foot."

Mrs. Fuller, a tall willowy brunette, died in a hospital a short while after the attack.

Death Takes Andrew Sivok, 68

Andrew Sivok, 68, a retired miner last working at Peabody 47 mine, died Sunday at 1:55 a. m. in the Harrisburg hospital. Death was due to a cerebral hemorrhage. He had been ill since Tuesday of last week.

Mr. Sivok was born on Feb. 24, 1886, in Hungary, and in 1914 he married his wife, Tere, who survives. He had been a resident of Saline county since 1917 and resided at 1001 West Poplar.

Besides his wife he leaves the following children: Susie Whitehead, Pontiac, Mich.; Andy Sivok, Clay City, Elizabeth Wolf, Rosalee English, Johnny Sivok, and Billy Sivok, all of Harrisburg, and 13 grandchildren. Four children preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held today at 2 p. m. in the chapel of the Gaskins funeral home. Rev. John P. Emig, Presbyterian minister, officiated, and burial was in Sunset Hill cemetery.

Transfer Prisoner To East St. Louis

Jones to Vacate State's Attorney Office Dec. 31

New State Senator Announces Plans in Letter to County Board

Glen O. Jones, who will become state senator next month, today announced that he would vacate the office of state's attorney of Saline county at the close of business Dec. 31.

His announcement was made in a letter to the Saline County Board of Supervisors, and it recommended that the board give serious consideration to the appointment of somebody to take his place "since responsibility for the appointment rests wholly on the members of this board."

Jones will open his law office in the Gregg building after he leaves the office of state's attorney as the new job will not keep him in Springfield all the time.

Jones holds some unusual distinctions gained during three and a half years as state's attorney. He was first elected to fill out one and a half years of the unexpired term of the late C. A. Whiteside, and was elected state's attorney two years ago, then elected state senator in November. Thus he has been elected to office three times in three and a half years. He also is the first state's attorney of Saline county ever elected to succeed himself since James M. Gregg was elected in 1872 and 1876. And during his terms he never lost a case brought to trial.

Jones' letter to the board: "Having been elected to the office of State Senator by the people of the 51st Senatorial District, it will become necessary for me to assume the duties of that office in the month of January, 1955. Therefore, you are hereby notified that I shall vacate the office of State's Attorney of Saline County at the close of business on December 31st, 1954."

"Upon my resignation effective December 31st, 1954, it will be the duty of the Board of Supervisors, upon request by a majority of the Circuit Judges of this judicial circuit, to select and appoint some competent attorney to discharge the duties of State's Attorney until the election and qualification of a State's Attorney as provided by law."

"I recommend that the Board give serious consideration to this appointment, since responsibility for the appointment rests wholly on the members of this Board."

"I want to take this opportunity to thank the individual members of the Board for their kindness and cooperation during the years of my service as State's Attorney."

"Upon leaving the office of State's Attorney, I shall open my office in the Gregg Building at 112 North Main Street in Harrisburg for the general practice of law and, if I can be of any assistance to any of you in connection with any matter which has arisen during my term of office, please feel free to call on me in any connection where I may serve the welfare of our county for my interest in the government of our country will continue as always."

Pinkneyville C-C Adds New Touch to 26-Foot Santa Claus

PINKNEYVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Chamber of Commerce members took a look at their 26-foot Santa Claus figure on the Courthouse lawn here and decided something was missing. They added it.

Now a replica of a basketball is in St. Nick's hand and he appears to be taking a one-handed shot at a nearby chimney.

Pinkneyville is a hotbed of enthusiasm over prep basketball. The Pinkneyville team won the state championship in 1948 and has been third in the state each of the last three years.

Fool Statements by High Persons Cost U. S. Foreign Friends, Truman Says

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman said today "fool statements by persons in high places" cost the United States friends in the conduct of this country's foreign policy.

But, he said, he is satisfied that all steps possible are being taken to free American fliers sentenced to prison in Red China on phony spy charges.

He also said he believed President Eisenhower will have less trouble with the incoming Congress than he had with the Republican-dominated Senate and House in the last Congress.

Mr. Truman, in a press conference kicking off a day of activities to be climaxed by a $70-a-plate birthday dinner tonight, said the American foreign policy today is what was set up by his administration.

"But we lost a lot of friends by fool statements by persons in high places."

He said the foreign policy is based on "continued support of the United Nations for peace in the world."

Mr. Truman declined to say what he would do to free the fliers imprisoned by the Chinese Reds.

Mr. Truman was at Independence Hall at noon and presented Secretary of Interior Douglas McKay with a portrait of Benjamin Franklin, painted in 1785, to hang in the hall. That ceremony was followed by a luncheon at the American Philosophical Society founded by Franklin.

Mr. Truman will meet with the Steering Committee of the Pennsylvania Committee for the Truman Library in the afternoon, preceding a $70-a-plate dinner. Proceeds of the dinner, to be attended by more than 800 political and civic leaders, will go to the fund.

The dinner guest list will be headed by Governor-elect George M. Leader of Pennsylvania and Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey.

Simultaneously with the dinner, 300,000 envelopes will be mailed to individuals in the Philadelphia area for small contributions to the library fund.

OIL REPORT: Flanders Well Opens New Area, One of Hottest Spots in Tri-State

By JERRY ROBERTSON
Tri-State Oil Reporter

The area a mile northeast of Eldorado, where W. C. McBride Inc. has just set casing on the best "three pay" wildcat yet to be drilled in Saline county is one of the hottest spots in the Tri-State area.

There the C. O. Flanders No. 1 in the SW corner of the NE quarter of the SE quarter of Section 10, 8s-7e, has opened a new area and indications are that there will be an ultimate recovery of over 120,000 barrels of oil from this well. This is based on 55 feet of well-saturated oil sand found in this hole.

A one-hour drill stem test in the Palestine at 1971-88 gassed in 11 minutes, recovering 760 feet of oil, no water, with a bottom hole pressure of 880 pounds. A 90 minute drill stem test in the Waltersburg at 2116-39 gassed in six minutes, flowed clean oil naturally in 60 minutes, no water, with a bottom hole pressure of 875. A 15 minute drill stem test in the upper Tar Springs at 2229-40 gassed in 30 seconds, bottom hole pressure 1000, was estimated at 3 million cubic feet. A 15 minute drill stem test in the Tar Springs at 2240-63 gassed in one minute, flowed clean oil naturally in six minutes, no water, bottom hole pressure 1026.

Receive First-Hand Briefing On Legislation

Domestic Program Discussed In All-Day Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican congressional leaders today received a first-hand briefing at the White House of the domestic legislative program President Eisenhower will submit to the next Congress.

Mr. Eisenhower, members of his Cabinet, and the GOP members of Congress met in the cabinet room for an intensive all-day conference. Although Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson led off with reports on foreign affairs and defense needs, the discussions were dominated by domestic problems.

Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said the emphasis will be on foreign affairs, mutual security, and national defense Tuesday when the President meets with prospective Democratic House and Senate committee chairmen along with the GOP leaders.

The White House expected to have a statement from the conference sometime after 4 p. m. CST today, but nothing before that time.

Dulles discussed foreign affairs with the GOP leaders for 45 minutes and then Wilson took over for a briefing on the upcoming military needs of the nation.

During the morning session, the President and the GOP leaders also talked with Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey, budget director Rowland Hughes, Harold E. Stassen, foreign operations director, Clarence Randall, White House consultant on foreign trade, and Sherman Adams, the assistant to the President.

Senate GOP leader William F. Knowland predicted a "substantial amount of harmony" despite the party's deep differences over Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy and the administration's far eastern policies.

But both Knowland and House Speaker Joseph W. Martin Jr. declined to forecast the fate of the President's proposals until they have had a chance to study them in detail.

Mr. Eisenhower was expected at today's day-long session to give the leaders a tentative outline of the state of the union message he will send to the Democratic-controlled Congress in January. He also was expected to ask them for suggestions.

Tuesday, the President and his aides will discuss national defense and foreign policies. For this, Democratic as well as Republican spokesmen from both houses have been invited.

Knowland said the new legislative program will not be as large as the 1953-54 recommendations since Congress already has put many of the President's proposals into effect.

The chief new item will call for an expanded economic aid program to combat Communism in the Far East. Mr. Eisenhower also is expected to ask Congress to postpone scheduled cuts in excise and corporation income taxes.

Legislative proposals left over from the 83rd Congress include revision of the Taft-Hartley Law, statehood for Hawaii, a health insurance program, 18-year-old vote, postal rate increases, federal pay hikes, and reciprocal trade.

Young Man Picked Up Here Enters Anna Hospital Voluntarily

A young man from out-of-state who was found loitering in the lobby of the Harrisburg hospital in the early morning hours several days ago, entered Anna state hospital as a volunteer patient Saturday.

At the time he was picked up by city police at the request of nurses on duty, he stated he had lost $700 in traveler's checks, which were recovered.

Dr. J. D. Wimpee found the traveler's checks in his office, but stated the young man had not been his patient and apparently had lost them while in the office during a time the doctor was absent.

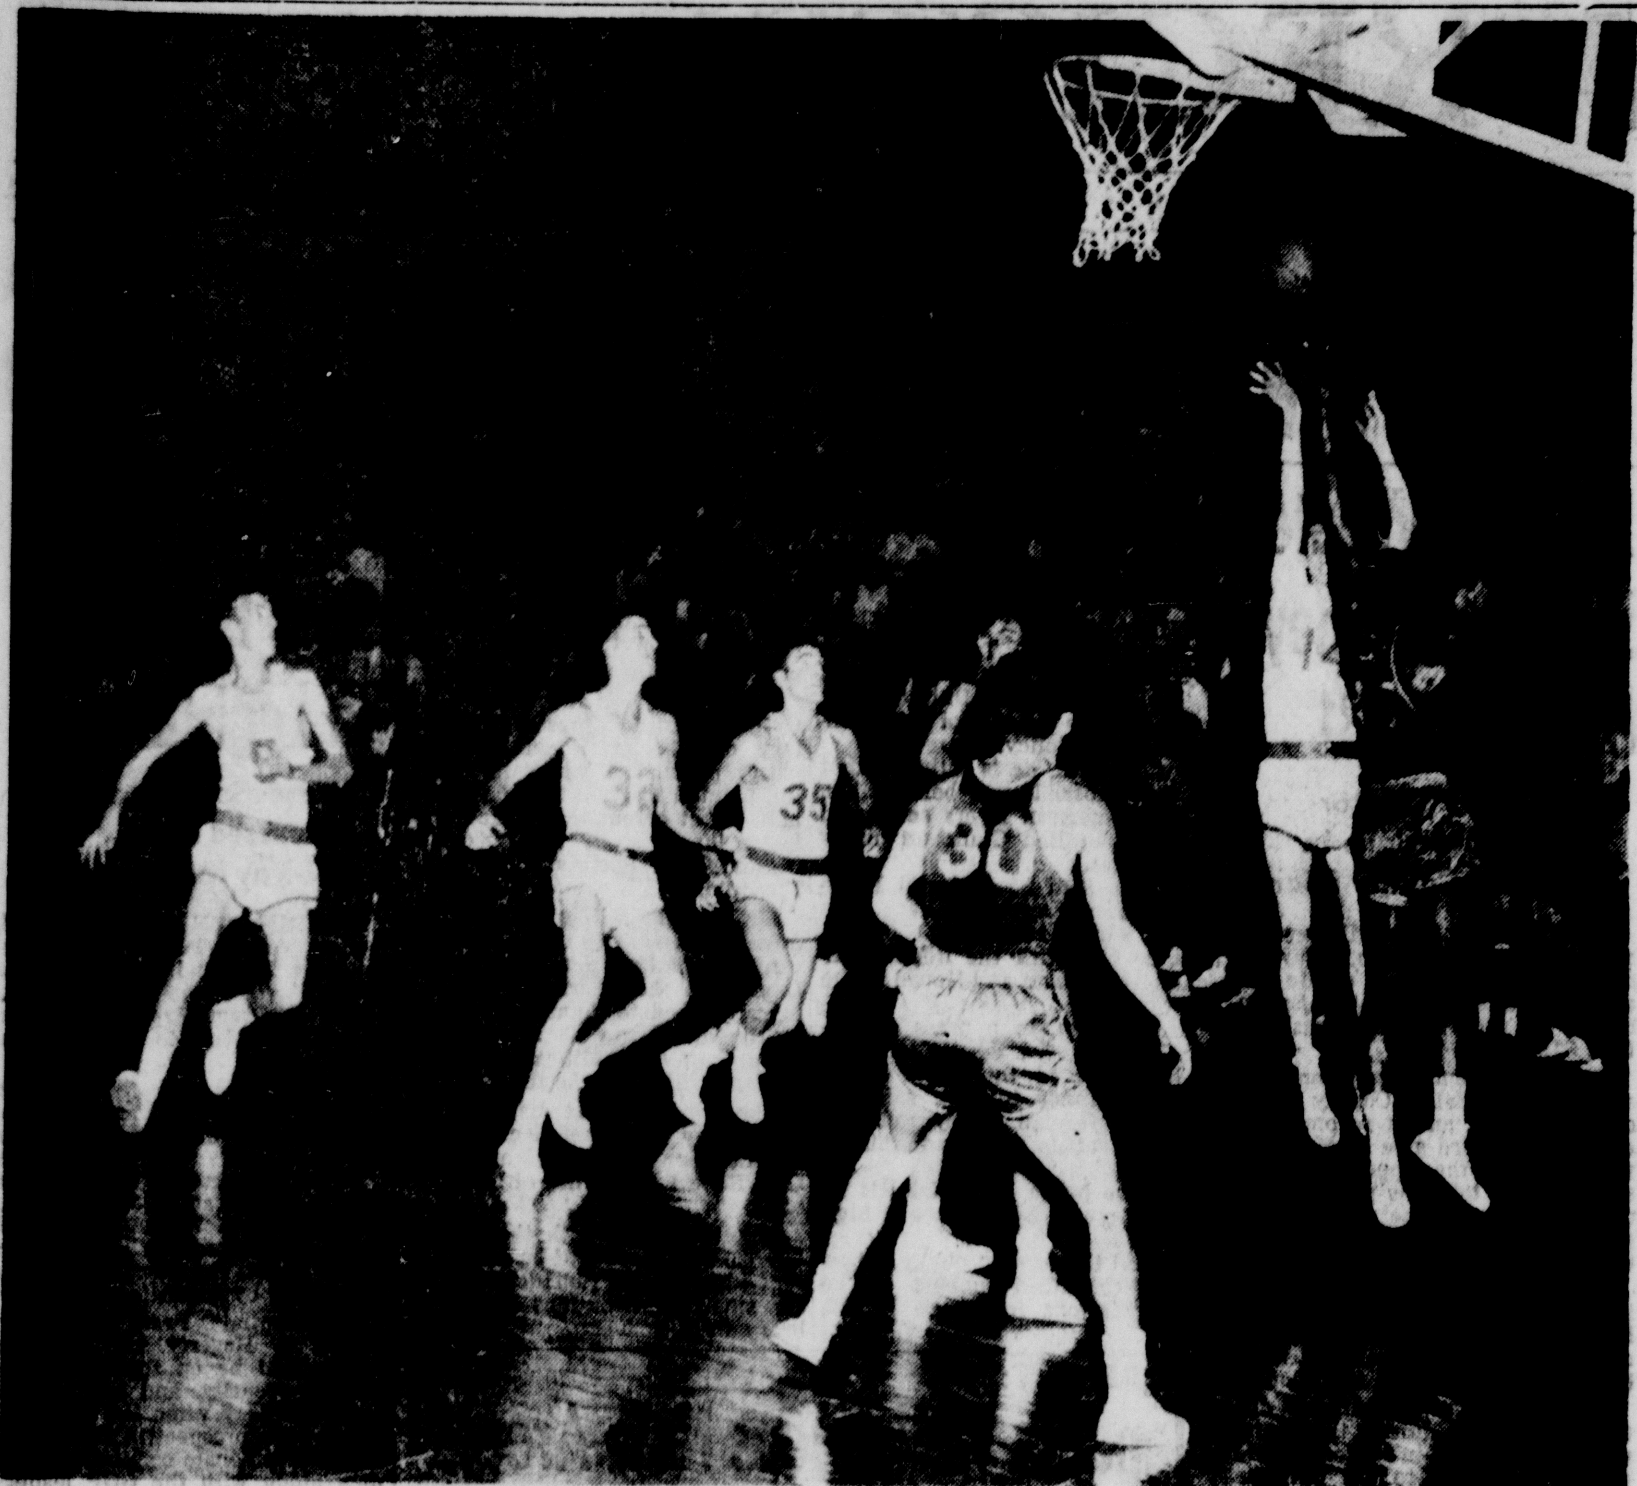

Arrangements in Dr. Wimpee's refrigerator where certain types of medicines are stored were disturbed to a point to indicate some unauthorized person had been in the office, the doctor stated.

Bull Dogs Trip Carrier Mills 66 to 60

BULL DOG DAVE ANGLIN SCORES two of his 20 points by jumping high from the side as he is guarded by Oliver Rollins of Carrier Mills at Davenport gym Saturday night. Other players shown are Harrisburg's Don Price (5), Gerald Wasson (32) and Dave Harrison (35) and Carrier Mills' Max Berns (30). Harrisburg won 66 to 60.

Missouri Shocks Iowa, 97-94, Notre Dame Drops Thriller to Indiana, 73-70

By United Press

It was a weekend of horror for high-ranked basketball teams as no fewer than nine of the top 20 went crashing in defeat, and three of them hit the comeback trail tonight to start a week that seems loaded with more trouble.

Four of the nine big-name losers bowed to teams that outranked them. But the other five defeats were by unranked teams and there were some real "shockers."

Iowa, ranked second, bowed by 97-94 to the same hot-shooting Missouri team that previously beat Indiana; Duquesne, ranked third, was tumbled by George Washington, 71-64, in the finals of the Steel Bowl Tournament at Pittsburgh; and Holy Cross, last season's National Invitation Tournament champion now ranked eighth, took a 93-73 walloping from St. John's in a game that set two Madison Square Garden scoring records.

Also bowing to unranked teams were 13th-ranked St. Louis, 91-86 to Ohio State, and 16th-ranked DePaul, 94-84, to Minnesota.

La Salle Wins Thriller

Losing to higher-ranked teams were: 10th-ranked Niagara, bowing to first-ranked La Salle, 76-75, in an overtime thriller; 11-ranked Notre Dame, which dropped a nationally televised 73-70 decision to Indiana; 17th-ranked Oregon State, beaten for the second straight night by 15th-ranked Southern California, 53-35; and 17th-ranked Oklahoma A and M, beaten 59-53 by sixth-ranked Illinois.

Iowa tries to get back on the winning trail tonight by playing host to St. Mary's of California in an intercollegiate tussle, while Notre Dame seeks to "get well" against Loyola of Chicago and the Oklahoma Aggies face a dangerous assignment in Texas Tech.

And before the week is over all the "name" teams will be put to the test again. For example, La

Lions, Browns Clinch Pro Grid Titles

By United Press

The Detroit Lions and Cleveland Browns, two of the most successful teams in National Football League history, close the season against each other in a "nothing" game Sunday and open fire in earnest Dec. 26 when they clash in the championship game for the third straight year.

Both games will be played in Cleveland, but that's the only advantage the Browns will have when they try to crack one of sport's biggest jinxes. Detroit defeated Cleveland in the last two championship games, won its only previous regular season game with the Browns and never has gotten worse than a tie in exhibitions between the two clubs.

Postponement of their Oct. 3 game because of the World Series forces the Midwest powerhouses to play back-to-back contests although they have clinched the respective division titles.

Cleveland climaxed its finest comeback Sunday by crushing the Pittsburgh Steelers, 42-7, for its eighth straight victory and fifth straight Eastern title. No other NFL club ever won more than four straight division crowns.

Detroit, which clinched the Western title and a chance for a record third straight league championship last week, played without star quarterback Bobby Layne and bowed to the Chicago Bears, 28-24.

All the clubs except Detroit (8-2-1) and Cleveland (9-2) ended their campaigns during the week-end. While the Bears (8-4) clinched second place in the Western Division, the Philadelphia Eagles (7-4-1) took runner-up honors in the East by beating the New York Giants, 29-14. The Los Angeles Rams (6-5-1) defeated the Green Bay Packers, 35-27, and the Washington Redskins downed the Chicago Cardinals, 37-20.

The San Francisco Forty-Niners (7-4-1) finished with a 10-7 Saturday triumph over the Baltimore Colts (3-9) on Gordie Soltau's 10-yard field goal.

Three Die of Boxing Injuries

BOSTON — A brain surgeon said today "several damaging blows" were the cause of a brain hemorrhage that took the life of Eddie Sanders, second boxer to die of ring injuries in two days.

Sanders, 25-year-old 1952 Olympic heavyweight champion from Los Angeles, died Sunday at a hospital 19 hours after an 11th round knockout by Willie James of Boston at Boston Garden.

The quiet-manner young Negro died of the same type of injury that took the life of Ralph Weiser of Klamath Falls, Ore., Saturday after a Friday night bout.

A third fighter died Sunday in Montreal. Johnny Greco, former Canadian welterweight champion, was killed when his automobile went out of control and hit a tree. He was starting a comeback after holding the title from 1946 to 1953.

The city of Hamtramck covers an area of two square miles inside the city of Detroit, Mich.

TV is still in its infancy and sometimes it appears to be getting younger every day.

Second Saturday Night Victory; Locals Play Marion Here Friday Night

Those Saturday night hot-shots, the Harrisburg Bull Dogs, face two more games this week-end after beating Carrier Mills Saturday night, 66 to 60 in a contest here.

The locals have failed in both their Friday night encounters by definite margins, but in their two Saturday night engagements they have knocked off Eldorado and Carrier Mills.

The two losses have been on foreign floors and to South Seven teams, the two wins in Davenport gymnasium.

This week form must change, because a South Seven team will be at the local gym for the first time this season, and will be here for a Friday night game. That team is Marion, which always is fast and good. Saturday night the Bull Dogs travel to Johnston City for a non-conference contest.

Come From Behind

Next game for Carrier Mills is scheduled for Wednesday at Shawneetown against the unbeaten Indians.

This game was earlier announced as a Tuesday date, but will be played Wednesday.

To win Saturday night the locals had to come from behind and score 19 points in the final stanza to eight for Carrier Mills.

It was big Oliver Rollins, powerful junior, who kept the Carrier Mills lads in the running. Big Rube made 11 field goals and ten free shots for 32 points and forced the two Harrisburg centers, John Wilson and Gerry Wasson, into nine fouls between them. He was a hard man to guard.

But Harrisburg Coach Gene Bland had both his forwards hitting the bucket, Dave Harrison and Dave Anglin making 20 points each.

Both teams did a good job on free throws, Harrisburg hitting 24 out of 37 and Carrier Mills 22 out of 33.

Harrisburg held a 10-8 lead with only three minutes elapsing in the game but Carrier Mills tied the score, then went ahead and stayed there, at one time in the lead by nine points and once by ten, until a basket by Anglin put Harrisburg ahead 53-52, with five minutes left in the contest.

Wildcats Lead at Half

The big-scoring first quarter, in which 37 points went through the hoop, ended with Carrier Mills leading 21-16. The Wildcats ran the margin to 27 to 18, then 29-20, in the second period before Harrisburg started cutting the margin in the closing couple of minutes.

The half ended with Carrier Mills leading by one point, 27-26.

The third period saw Carrier Mills jump out in front by eight points, 46-38, then by 10, 48-38, and the 52-47 margin at the end of the period looked pretty secure. But after the count was tied the game was nip-and-tuck. With a minute and 15 second to go Harrisburg held a 59-58 lead and Carrier Mills, trying desperately to get the ball and score, started fouling. The last seven Harrisburg points were made on free shots, four in a row by Don Price.

In the preliminary game the Bull Pups got a scare before downing the Carrier Mills frosh-soph team, 66 to 58. Harrisburg piled up a 21-7 lead in the first quarter and led 38-20 at halftime. In the third quarter Carrier Mills narrowed the gap to 61-42 and came within a few points of Harrisburg before the locals spurred to a more substantial lead near the close.

Bull Pup scoring: C. Cummins 0, Fulkerson 12, Whitson 2, J. Cummins 2, Crews 0, Bottomley 6, Ziegler 14, Jones 6, Stone 0, Henshaw 23, Hassett 0.

Carrier Mills scoring: Absher 2, Shadovens 12, Cowger 5, L. Williams 2, Storms 7, V. Rollins 0, Cofield 21, Rouse 7, McNew 2.

Law Enforcement Conference Held at Du Quoin

DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP)—Sheriffs and their deputies from 15 counties attended a law enforcement conference at state police Dist. 13 headquarters Sunday.

State Police Supt. Phil Brown, Springfield, told the 33 county officers law enforcement is a big job that will require all the effort they can give it.

Percy Wylly II, special agent in charge of the Springfield FBI office, explained the FBI setup in downstate Illinois.

Byron T. Fischer, of the U. S. Treasury Department's alcohol and tobacco tax division, described the operation of his division which is mainly directed at bootleggers. He said his office will be moved from Herrin to Harrisburg next week.

Warden Ross Randolph of Menard State Penitentiary at Chester told of the facilities at the prison and outlined the procedure for taking prisoners to Menard. Randolph said the prison population has increased in the past two years and was 2,001 as of Sunday.

Warden Glenn Murphy of the State Penal Farm at Vandalia told the sheriffs to check carefully legal papers and warrants concerning their prisoners. He said a number of prisoners were released from the farm on writs because of improper legal procedures in their convictions.

The Blanche Simpson circle of the First Baptist church met with Mrs. Claude Parker for the December social.

Mrs. Parker, circle chairman, was in charge of the program which opened with prayer by Mrs. S. J. Cole. During the business session Christmas cards were signed by all present and sent to shut-in members. The Margaret Fund student and what might be done for her was discussed. A Christmas basket and five dollars in cash were delivered to a family through the home mission project. Each one contributing felt that she had received a blessing.

Mrs. Parker narrated the story of the birth of Christ while Mrs. Charles Girt showed the story in slides and other scenes of interest. Sentence prayers closed the meeting.

The refreshment table as well as the home was beautifully decorated with the Christmas theme. Coffee and Christmas cookies were served.

The January meeting will be held with Mrs. Guy Lawrence.

Others present were Mrs. Ed Creek, Mrs. Charles Gustin and Mrs. Parker's daughter, Debbie.

They demonstrated an assortment of candles which they had made previously which included Christmas tree forms, squares, round, short and tall candles. Mrs. Lindsay and Mrs. Parker had brought their own Christmas packages which they wrapped and explained the size of how to be used on each package. Among the gift boxes were long, short, round, and very small jewelry boxes.

Mrs. Kimmel, assisted by Mrs. W. E. Pankey, served date cake with whipped cream, and coffee.

The next meeting will be held in January at the home of Mrs. Roy Adams.

Eldorado Phone Operator Selected As 'Miss Voice'

At a recent toll center and tributary traffic meeting, sponsored by the Illinois Telephone association, Miss Mabel Underwood, chief operator at the Eldorado exchange, was judged as "Miss Voice," having the "voice with a smile."

The contest to judge the operator with the most pleasing voice was held in conjunction with the meeting and 18 chief operators participated. Judges were traffic superintendents from Springfield and Chicago.

During the morning session each operator was given a number and each given a paper containing a message, which was to be read onto a tape recorder. The only identification on the tape was the number.

During the afternoon the judges played back the readings and announced operator number 8 as the winner. That was Miss Underwood and she was introduced as "Miss Voice" and presented with a fountain pen.

At the meeting, held at the Marion Hotel, were representatives of the General Telephone Company of Illinois, Illinois Bell Telephone company and other telephone companies operating in the southern district of the state.

The purpose of the meetings, which are held annually in various sections of Illinois, are to create a closer understanding between tributary offices and their toll centers.

Selecting "Miss Voice, The Voice With a Smile," was a new feature this year.

Judge Advocate Charged with Killing War Bride

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. — The judge advocate of the Army's super secret guided missile center here today was expected to face trial in February for the murder and rape of a pretty Polish war bride.

Capt. Marcus Bluth, 40, of Joliet, Ill., judge advocate of Redstone Arsenal, was being held without bond meanwhile in the slaying of Mrs. Helen Theresa Meighen, 32, war bride of Capt. Patrick Meighen, 39, of Waynesburg, Pa.

Mrs. Meighen's body, clad in a skirt and sweater, was found last Monday, 10 days after Bluth was reported to have had a "secret date" with her.

Police charged Bluth, a member of the California Bar Assn., with raping the platinum-haired woman and killing her Nov. 27 after a drinking bout. Officers said Bluth, who has a wife and 10-year-old son in Los Angeles, smoked and drank in Mrs. Meighen's apartment.

Officers said Bluth and Meighen dated local girls together while Bluth advised Meighen not to see his wife while divorce action was pending. Bluth took the woman to see a local attorney about divorce action and gave Meighen "friendly advice" about the case, authorities said.

Stevenson Opens Law Office

CHICAGO — Adlai E. Stevenson's new law office will be located adjacent to that of another former Illinois governor, Dwight H. Green.

The 1952 Democratic presidential nominee will have little else in common with his neighbor, however, since Green is a Republican. Stevenson won the governorship from Green, who was seeking a third term, in 1948.

Stevenson is preparing to resume the law practice he gave up to make the race for governor, his first venture into politics.

No 'Hate Ike' Drive: Butler

WASHINGTON — Paul Butler, new chairman of the Democratic party, said Sunday night he doesn't advocate a "We Hate Ike" campaign but feels the Democrats ought to criticize the President's "mistakes and failures."

Sen. John J. Sparkman (D-Ala.) endorsed Butler's stand. He said the President ought to "share personal responsibility for what he has done and left undone."

Butler, appearing on the CBS television show "Face of the Nation," said the Democrats have "great respect" for Mr. Eisenhower and his office but feel his mistakes are a legitimate target for criticism.

Butler also said: "He wishes the President would join with moderate Republicans and Democrats in Congress and square away with the Old Guard." He did not elaborate on this at length but said, "The Old Guard will resist the President on the program which the President has indicated he intends to give to the American people."

The Democrats will not "exploit splits" in the Republican ranks for criticism.

Hugh S. Gibson,
Foreign Expert, Dies
In Switzerland

GENEVA, Switzerland — Hugh S. Gibson, 71, American director of the Intergovernmental Committee for European Migration and a veteran of 46 years in international affairs, died at his home Sunday.

His son, Michael, announced that funeral services will take place at the Cathedral of Notre Dame Wednesday at 11 a. m. He will be buried here where he had made his home since 1932.

During 30 years of service as a Foreign Service officer he was minister to Switzerland, when he headed the U. S. delegation to the disarmament conference in Geneva, Brazil, and once served as minister to Poland.

Gibson retired from the Foreign Service in 1938 and because of his long experience in relief work later was appointed to the migration committee. He was associated with Herbert Hoover in relief work in World War I.

When a cold makes your child miserable, he needs a medication that does more than just work on his chest. He needs Vicks VapoRub — because it acts two ways at once:

1. VapoRub relieves muscular soreness and tightness, stimulates chest surfaces.

2. At the same time, VapoRub's special medicated vapors also bring relief with every breath.

You can't see these vapors, but your child can feel them as they travel deep into the nose, throat and large bronchial tubes. Congestion starts breaking up. Coughing eases. Soon he enjoys warming relief that lasts for hours.

So when colds strike, use the best-known home remedy to relieve such suffering — Vicks VapoRub.

10 Dead in Illinois Auto Accidents During Week End

By United Press
Ten persons were killed in auto accidents in Illinois over the week-end, including the first fatality of the year in Aurora.

Richard Lee Loftus, 19, of Aurora, was killed in an auto-truck collision. He was a passenger in an auto which skidded into a trailer-truck Sunday.

Loftus' companion and driver of the car, Dean Goble, 21, Aurora, was critically injured.

It was the first fatal traffic accident of 1951 for Aurora, and it came just three days before S-D Day—the Safe Driving Day proclaimed by President Eisenhower during which all Americans have been asked to work for a day free of any traffic accidents.

Jerry W. Swindell, 18, Carbondale, was killed Sunday and another youth was injured when their car plunged off Ill. 15 near Carbondale, and landed in a creek.

Four pedestrians were killed in Chicago, all by hit-run drivers.

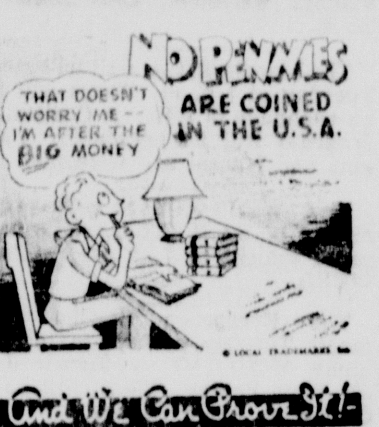

Other deaths:
James Althen, 23, Western Springs, killed in an auto-truck smashup near Marengo.
Albert Myers, 62, Martinsville, killed in an auto-truck accident near Marshall.

A Thick Glass Does Not Stand Hot Water Better Than a Thin One.

The Reverse is true. Glass is a bad conductor of heat. In a thick glass tumbler the inner layers of the glass are heated before the outer. Heat causes expansion, and the outer layers are burst by the expansion of the inner. In a thin tumbler the whole thickness of the glass is heated almost at once, and all the parts expand at the same time. 1. "Popular Fallacies" A. S. E. Ackermann. 2. Plan to Arrest Attorney for Phenix City Slaying

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP)—Assistant County Attorney Jack Callahan said he "understood" officers planned to arrest Alabama Attorney General Silas Garrett today on a charge of first degree murder.

It is believed the charge is in connection with the slaying of Albert Patterson of Phenix City, Ala., who was to have succeeded Garrett as attorney general.

Garrett already has been indicted in Alabama on a vote fraud charge. He now is in the psychiatric clinic of John Sealy hospital here undergoing shock treatment.

Sheriff Lamar Murphy of Russell County, Ala., arrived by plane Saturday with the warrant, but Callahan said the necessary legal papers for Garrett's arrest under Texas law did not arrive until late Sunday night.

Two other Alabama law officials have been indicted on charges of first degree murder in the slaying last June of Patterson, who had promised to stamp out the underground elements operating in Phenix City.

Garrett disappeared from Alabama several months ago, in the midst of the anti-vice crackdown in Phenix City that followed Patterson's murder. The crime fighter had won nomination on a pledge to clean up Phenix City, his home town and for years a wide-open gambling and vice center catering to soldiers from nearby Ft. Benning, Ga.

Get Rich Quick—Tax Revisions—The Word—
Almost—Public Housing—'Pseudo Liberals'

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — A new version of the chain-letter craze is back in Washington. It apparently started in the Pentagon and the word there is that one Air Force colonel has already cleaned up $4,000 on the gimmick. It works like this:

The buyer of one of the letters must hand the seller $5 and in his presence, the buyer must mail $5 to the name at the top of an 11-name list in the letter. The buyer then adds his own name at the bottom of the list and crosses off the name of the person to whom he has mailed his $5.

The buyer of the list then becomes a seller. He sells the letter twice to get back his original investment of $10.

Each new buyer in turn then becomes a seller, adding his name at the bottom of the list and crossing off the name of the person to whom he mails $5. The original buyer's name gets to the top of the list after this process has been repeated ten times. And then the money is supposed to roll in.

The new technique has been dreamed up in an effort to overcome Post Office Department objections to soliciting by mail.

Postmaster General Arthur E.
Summerfield has put out a warning, however, that since the money goes through the mail, the scheme violates postal laws. "The amount won, if anything," says the P. M. G., "is dependent on chance and therefore it constitutes a lottery."

WHILE PRIVATE corporation tax lawyers are saying the new Congress will have to pass another big tax bill next year to clarify many sections of the revised tax code passed this year, treasury officials are playing this down. Their tax experts are examining all complaints and questions as they come in. They are surprised to find that there will not have to be as many revisions of law as they thought there would be.

But there will be some changes submitted to Congress, says Undersecretary of the Treasury Marion B. Folsom. His staff is not far enough along in its survey to say how many there will be. And no decision has been made on whether recommendations for the changes will be made in the President's State of the Union Message at the opening of Congress, or in a special message later in the session.

NORMAN P. MASON, Commissioner of Federal Housing Administration, thinks there's no need "to sell" President Eisenhower's new housing programs, since every one concerned now seems to have the word.

But in this connection Mr. Mason tells the story of the gun-ner's mate in the crow's nest aboard one of John Paul Jones' ships.
During one of the Revolutionary War sea battles, a cannon ball hit the mast and knocked the crow's nest to the deck.

That is when John Paul Jones is supposed to have uttered his classic remark: "We've just begun to fight!"

Picking himself out of the demolished crow's nest, the gun-ner's mate is supposed to have muttered:

"There's always someone who doesn't get the word."

AT THE OFFICE of Vice President Nixon staff members are used to having an odd assortment of characters coming in and making wild requests.

A while back a lady entered and informed one of the secretaries that her husband was trying to put ground glass in her food and kill her. The caller was given the brush-off in a diplomatic and polite manner.

Some time after, everyone got quite a jolt when they read in the paper that this same woman actually had come close to being killed by ground glass.

CHARLES E. SLUSSER, commissioner of Public Housing, says the new Public Housing Act will not be able to provide homes where they are needed most. This is because restrictions at the state level will stand in the way of equitable distribution of the 35,000 units authorized for the next two years.

"Eighteen states, to be exact, do not now have the necessary laws for their cities to be eligible," says Mr. Slusser. "A great many other cities in states that do have the necessary legislation are not far enough along in their antismul-tiple planning to share in the authorized units within the time they are available."

FBI DIRECTOR J. Edgar Hoover had some harsh words for what he called "pseudo liberals" during his address after receiving the Cardinal Gibbons award for 1954.

Mr. Hoover said they have been "beguiled, cultivated and perverted because they have not been conscious of the horror, duplicity and godlessness of ath-eistic communism."

"The eager readiness of some in this group to attack everyone and everything related to the efforts to expose the Communist conspiracy in this country is hardly the mark of a true liberal."
Indeed, the true liberal is opposed to everything communism represents, for the very nature of communism is the antithesis of liberalism."

New Woman In Sheppard Case

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The state brought out a new "other woman" in Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard's life today and hinted he had been thinking of leaving the country only two months before his wife's July 4 bludgeon-murder.

Cross-examination of Dr. Sheppard by Prosecutor John J. Mahon disclosed that the handsome osteopathic surgeon had had dates in 1950 in California with a Margaret Kaurzor. They began, he testified, when he took her to a school dance while his wife Marilyn, was visiting in Cleveland.

Dr. Sheppard testified he went swimming with Miss Kaurzor, visited in her home a number of times and may have had one or two dates with her in her home after Marilyn returned to Los Angeles.

This all happened, Dr. Sam testified, after his wife experienced "a loss of some of her sexual aggressiveness."

Dr. Sheppard is accused by the state of beating his wife to death after quarreling with her about her affairs with other women.

Susan Hayes, 24, a laboratory technician, has testified that she was sexually intimate with Dr. Sam at various times over a 16-month period and that he gave her a ring and a watch and professed his love for her.

Madness In The Spring

Copyright 1954 by Elinore Denniston.

Distributed by NEA Service, Inc.

XXV

The cigarette Hannah had forgotten to smoke went out and she pulled it apart absently, letting the fragments blow out of the open window. Greg, she thought, Greg. The word went on and on in her mind. Greg.

There had been many hotel rooms in the past weeks but she had never become accustomed to them, never reconciled to transitory living. She was a homemaker in her bones.

It was strange how rarely she thought of the man who had jilted her, how difficult it was to reconstruct his face. As a rule, she remembered him only when they reached a new town and she sent picture postcards to her sisters. She felt guilty, then, because she was deceiving them, because they believed her to be on an extensive trip with her bridegroom. Gladys had visited Boston once but the rest had never gone beyond Portland.

Hannah pushed the tumbled hair back from her throbbing head. How could you explain Mr. Kirby and his amnesia to Gladys. Gladys would never believe she had known anyone as famous as Mr. Kirby. The closest anyone at home had ever come to a celebrity was Mrs. Harris who had gone to New York and been part of a radio audience. She still talked about it.

How could you explain Rupert Landusky, who had no right to be in the country at all? Or even Uncle Wade, who collected people the way old Mr. Judson collected postage stamps?

Or Hannah herself, for that matter. The Hannah her family knew was reliable; without any surprises. Everyone knew what to expect of Hannah. The girl her family knew would never have started out on so mad a journey, a—what did Uncle Wade call it?—an "experiment in green." She was not sure what it meant, beyond a light-hearted adventure in spring.

All she wanted was a home and a husband and children of her own. That was natural, wasn't it? Hannah was unaccustomed to thinking. For 22 years she had felt her way, guided by a few homespun precepts, common sense and instinct. Now she had to think her way through an intolerable situation.

She sat at the open window in the dark, her hands twisted together in her lap. "I must stay in this town and get a job." The thought made the night intolerably empty. "I don't seem to be meant to be alone," she confessed to herself. "It doesn't feel natural."

Greg had bought her popcorn that night at the fair in Maine. He had taken care of her. He had not wanted to do it, but he had come back to find her, to get her a room, to lend her money and see that nothing happened to her. Greg was funny that way. He would say, "It doesn't concern me," but somehow it always did. Where Uncle Wade was involved, he was all exposed nerve ends, more hurt for him than the old man was for himself when people did not approve of Rupert, of the way he drank and chased women when they were in the towns. But he covered up for him so Daggett wouldn't know, and it was Greg's money that Rupert was spending. He didn't approve of Philip Kirby but somehow or other Greg would help him out of his difficulty, grumbling all the time.

Greg, she began again. Greg. Greg. Greg.

There was a soft patter on the windowpane, a sudden spring shower. "Perhaps that's it," Hannah thought out of her country wisdom. "It's spring."

She abandoned thinking and put her reliance on instinct.

The sound of rain drumming on the roof of the car awakened Greg. He straightened and moved his stiff neck cautiously. He postponed opening his eyes. When they were open he could no longer avoid the day and he was not ready to meet it. Something unpleasant was waiting for him. He knew the feeling. He had experienced it when his mother made him face the teacher and confess to breaking a window; when a man was promoted over his head at the office and he had to tell his stepfather, when—he remembered Hannah and he was wide awake.

Hannah was a nice, well-meaning girl but that wasn't enough. Just for a few minutes' madness, he was not going to be victimized for the rest of his life. A girl like Hannah was a matrimonial trap. A sudden memory of her in his arms stopped his breath. Although, he conceded, she had something he had not expected. Well, that was the end of it.

He took a long breath, squared his shoulders, started the motor and the windshield wiper. The dirt road was a lake and he drove cautiously back to town.

In the lobby of the hotel Hannah waited for him. Greg did not know what to expect. There was something different about her this morning. Then he observed that she had done her hair in a new way, with a deep wave drawn down until it nearly covered one eye. He realized that she was trying to conceal the bruise that had darkened her skin but the effect was to accentuate the size of her eyes, to make her almost pretty. Perhaps he would not have noticed this if a couple of men had not looked at her with a whistle in their eyes as she came up to him.

Charges Waste in Military Housing At Utah Air Base

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Wallace F. Bennett (R-Utah) asked the Federal Housing Administration today to look into reported waste in military housing at the Army's Deseret Chemical Depot.

Bennett wrote to FHA Commissioner Norman Mason, calling his attention to a General Accounting Office report on waste and alleged misuse of funds at the Tooele, Utah, base.

Bennett said the GAO reported that unnecessary housing had been built for military personnel at the post. He asked Mason if this was typical of what was happening elsewhere.

Bennett said 26 housing units were built at a cost of $272,000 at Tooele, and that no more than six have been rented at one time.

The General Accounting Office also asserted that a former Army colonel misused $170,000 to build a golf course, start a riding stable, and remodel an officers' club at the isolated Deseret post.

The GAO identified the ex-officer as Col. Patrick F. Powers, former commanding officer of the depot.

The report said that between "We need bread for breakfast," she said matter of factly, "You had better stop at a grocery store."

She pulled the hood of her raincoat over her head and made a dash for the car.
